Grimes, Wichita, Kan.; Mrs. Ray Wigglesworth, Parson, Kan.; and Mrs. Nora Chaffee, Crestone, Colo. Also surviving are four grandchildren.

General Mark Clark, invited to lunch in San Francisco, walked in just in time to catch his host in the act of placing the general's book, "Calculated Risk," in a position of honor on the coffee table. When the host started to blush and mumble, Clark smiled: "Don't be embarrassed. I dropped in at a friend's office yesterday—and he'd put my autographed picture back on the wall in such a hurry that it was still swinging when I walked in!"
